

2015: (1) Petitioner's account balance was $27.75; (2) his six-month average balance was $83.27; and (3) the average monthly deposit into his account over the past six months was $153.33, see id. at 4. The trust account certification also reflects that over the past six months $920.00 has been deposited into Petitioner's account. See id.

Legal Standards and Analysis

28 U.S.C. § 1915(a) sets forth the standards governing in forma pauperis motions. The district court may authorize the commencement of a civil action without the prepayment of fees or costs "by a person who submits an affidavit ... that [he or she] is unable to pay such fees or give security therefor." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). The Court must examine the financial condition of the applicant in order to determine whether the payment of fees would "cause [an] undue financial hardship." Prows v. Kastner, 842 F.2d 138, 140 (5th Cir. 1988). The amount of money available to inmates in their prison trust account or from other sources should be considered. See id.; Simon v. Quarterman, No. 3:07-cv-1793-D, 2007 WL 4167943, at *1 (N.D. Tex. Nov. 20, 2007).

The filing fee for a habeas case is $5.00. See 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a). Although Petitioner is incarcerated, the financial picture he presents – set out above – reflects that he can afford to pay the filing fee without incurring undue financial hardship. Cf. N.D. TEX. MISC. ORDER NO. 6, Rule 2a(4)(a)(ii) (May 5, 2005) (this Court routinely grants leave to proceed in forma pauperis if "the average six month balance of [an] inmate[s] trust account and other financial resources are less than Fifty Dollars").

Recommendation

Petitioner's IFP application [Dkt. No. 5] should be denied, and he should be ordered to pay the $5.00 filing fee within 21 days of any order accepting this recommendation.

A copy of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's findings, conclusions, and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Auto. Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
